

Norris Insurance Agency Consumer Privacy Policy

At Norris Insurance, we value your business and we want to retain your trust. We respect your right to privacy and maintain the confidentiality of any non-public personal information that we obtain. We assure you that such information is used only for the purpose of providing products and services to you.

Information We Obtain

In order to quote, underwrite and then service your policy, we collect nonpublic personal information about you such as your marital status, sex, date of birth, driving history, claim history, credit history, etc. We then receive information from you on applications or other forms and from consumer reporting agencies. We also collect information about your transactions with us, our affiliates or others.

Information We Disclose

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law.* Typical disclosures in the course of our business may go to insurance companies with which we attempt to place an insurance policy, consumer reporting agencies to obtain driving, claim or credit history, and coverage information to lien holders, certificate holders or to auto dealers when you purchase a vehicle. We may also utilize information in order to suggest other products or services that we can provide to you.

Our Practice Regarding Information

Our agents and employees may have access to nonpublic personal information only for the purpose of providing our products or services to you. This applies to both current and former customers. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

Transfer of Ownership

We reserve the right to transfer the ownership of this agency or its interests to a third party. Should that happen, the new owner will also be required to comply with the law and will notify you of its privacy statement should it change from our current policy.

- We reserve the right to disclose the results of our Norris Insurance races to the media and to share who participates in our races within the running community.